

EVENING HOURS

Bill Cunningham

Arts and Letters

Galas at every turn.

1

May 8: The American Patrons of Tate held a benefit dinner that raised $1.5 million for the British museum, which uses the proceeds to acquire art.

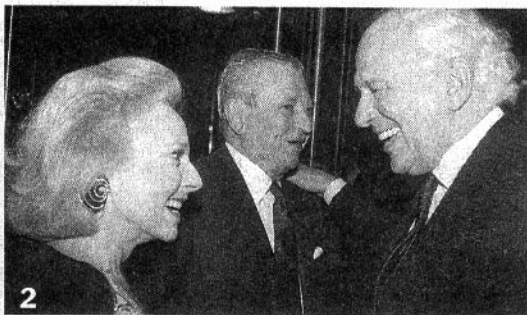

1. LYNN FORESTER DE ROTHSCHILD being congratulated by a guest.

2. From left, MARINA and GEORGE LIVANO with Sir EVELYN DE ROTHSCHILD.

3. JAMES HANNAHAM and KARA WALKER.

4. MEI-MEI BERSENBRUGGE and RICHARD TUTTLE.

5. BEN STEIN and QUEEN NOOR of Jordan.

2

3

5

4

13

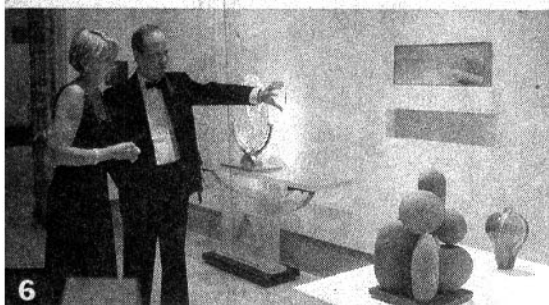

May 9: The Catholic Big Sisters and Big Brothers held its annual awards dinner at the Pierre. The organization honored Msgr. Kevin Sullivan.

13. From left, MONIQUE LAWTON, LIJUAN HARTFIELD, JUANTRICE HARTFIELD and ROSENA GRAHAM.

14. Msgr. KEVIN SULLIVAN.

14

6

May 5: The Newark Museum held a benefit preview of the exhibition, "The Art of Glass from Gallé to Chihuly."

6. CYNTHIA and ANDREW RICHARDS.

7. GREGORY and LORRAINE MATTHEWS.

8. RALPH and DENA LOWENBACH.

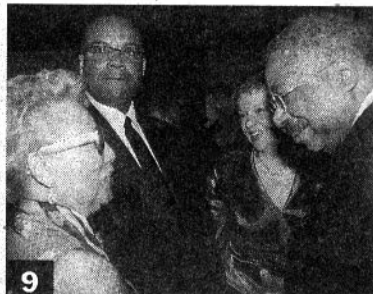

9. From left, THOMY D. JOYNER, PHILIP THIGPEN, MARY SUE PRICE and CLEMENT PRICE.

7

8

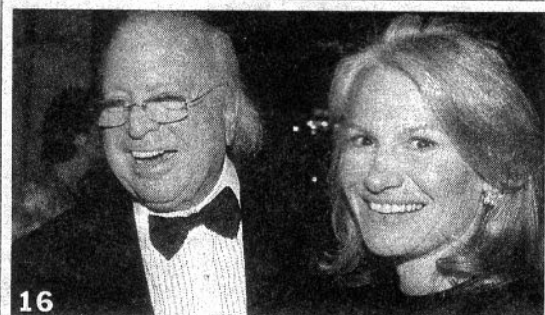

9

May 7: A reception was held for nearly 300 guests to celebrate the publication of the late Leo Lerman's journals. The party for "The Grand Surprise" (Knopf) was given by Gray Foy, Mr. Lerman's longtime friend, in the Osborne apartment they shared.

15. GRAY FOY.

15

16

May 8: The Mental Health Association of